FROM THE PRESIDENT AND 2023 CHAIR

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Galveston Island and the surrounding region, considered one of the best places in Texas to live, work and play. The Galveston Regional Chamber of Commerce, Texas' oldest chamber of commerce established in 1845, has a rich legacy of leadership and we take pride in the role we play promoting and advocating for business and community development. For over 178 years, our mission has not deviated from our ongoing efforts to foster a healthy community where businesses thrive, not just locally but regionally.

Local businesses are the cornerstone and economic heart of our community. As commerce leaders, we understand that a healthy business environment is essential to making Galveston Island and the region a great place to live, work and play. Our body of work ranges from public policy issues to educational and business growth opportunities. In addition to vibrant committee work in advocacy, education, and legislative affairs, we serve as an essential gateway to support our members by providing resources, tools, and opportunities to be successful. In 2022, we received a 5-star accreditation from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce – the highest rating in our industry.

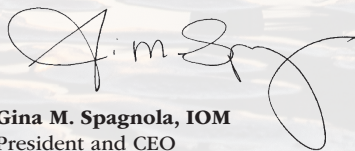

Whether you are looking to open a new business, visiting, searching for a new place to call home, or you are already a resident, Galveston is a flourishing city with a colorful past and a bright future standing by to welcome you. We encourage you to take advantage of the array of endless things to see and do, and to patronize our member businesses listed in this Membership Directory, Relocation & Island Guide by inviting you to reinvest in our community.

To ensure our members obtain full value of their membership investment, we collaborate with surrounding Galveston County chambers of commerce to expand reach, promote economic growth, and enhance the business community exponentially across our region. By working together, we position ourselves to create a better future for our businesses, communities, and region.

If you are a local business, considering relocating or opening a new business, we invite you to join the Galveston Regional Chamber of Commerce and engage with over 1,000 businesses, organizations, and individuals working together to promote a positive business climate in this vibrant community. ELITECARE EMERGENCY HOSPITAL

Leslie Fortenberry is the marketing director at Elitecare Emergency Hospital, a state-of-the-art, free-standing medical facility in League City. She is a trusted brand builder, spokesperson and strategic innovator experienced in executing cross-channel media campaigns. With over 25 years in communications and business development in Greater Galveston County, she is most proud of her lasting community partnerships, cultivated through ongoing service opportunities. She believes that caring for our students and community should be our No. 1 goal!

Elitecare Emergency Hospital is known for its strong presence and its reputation for delivering the highest level of patient care. Elitecare's physicians, nurses and radiologists are specialists in the field of emergency medicine. In fact, all of its doctors are board certified in emergency medicine – some even hold multiple certifications, including pediatric emergency medicine, gastroenterology and internal medicine.

Elitecare also offers state-of-the-art labs, CT scanning and radiology services in-house for its patients, with result times averaging less than an hour. The hospital's goal is to provide faster, cleaner, safer care to its patients, not just treating the symptoms, but providing the highest level of emergency care to each person who walks through the doors.

Elitecare also continues to offer PCR respiratory panel testing with quick online registration. This 10-second nasal swab will identify one of 22 respiratory pathogens, including the flu, strep, and RSV, using the BioFire RP2.1 Panel. Results are texted or emailed directly to the patient or parent, allowing for targeted treatment where appropriate. It has been fascinating to see the "personalities" of the different viruses and to follow the local epidemiology of the "bugs" present in local schools and workplaces. Patients and parents seem to love having the additional information, even if symptomatic care is all that is needed – simply providing peace of mind.

Elitecare's doctors and nurses take the time to truly care for the whole patient. Let Elitecare be your first choice for all of your emergency medical needs. (elite24er.com)

Craig is an entrepreneur and loves challenges and adventure. This is what brought him to Galveston in the first place. Craig joined the Galveston Regional Chamber of Commerce and continually gives back to the community by participating in local events and causes. His commitment to the community is second to none.

Craig provides entertainment to the island, but what is most important to him is allowing everyone to participate. He continually brainstorms with employees to create great discounts and bundled deals for the island and its visitors alike. CARNES FUNERAL HOME

Jay Carnes walked out of the doors of Commonwealth Institute of Mortuary Science in 1999 as a funeral director and began his journey down the funeral industry road, which led him to owning and operating Carnes Funeral Home. He and his wife, Lori, started building Carnes Funeral Home in 2003 with the goal of becoming the funeral home of choice in the communities they served by providing families with options that were not found at the average funeral home while also providing respectful, for entities and families all across the state of Texas.

While the number of family owned and operated independent funeral homes is shrinking, Jay believes they are the essence of what they do as funeral directors. The Carnes family helps other families during some of their most difficult days. It is what Jay believed when he opened Carnes Funeral Home and it is what he believes today.

Jay lives for life and likes to celebrate it. One of his passions is the Carnes Parade Krewe. Over the years, Jay has built a collection of parade vehicles that he takes all across southeast Texas. Carnes employees, friends, friends of friends and community members all ride on them. Jay enjoys seeing children and adults catch beads and toys the krewe throws to them in parades, sometimes five in one day.

"This is what life is about," Jay said. "It is about connecting with people and making them happy for whatever second or moment you have with them." (www.carnesfuneralhome.com)

CONEX COFFEE COMPANY

Conex Coffee began in 2020 in the aftermath of Hurricane Laura in Louisiana. Billy Ours and business partners Corey and Abby Tompkins were working on hurricane cleanup and used a Conex shipping container to house a coffee roaster and temporary living quarters. Billy found it to be perfect for what started the business venture Conex Coffee Plus at 302 25th St. and full-service coffee shop opening this year at 2312 Market St.

Billy, Corey, Abby and business manager Susan Merriweather, brought the need for a convenience store and freshly roasted coffee, sold in many forms, to the downtown area. "You can never have too much good coffee. Galveston was the immediate choice," Billy said. "The island has a kindred spirit to my hometown in Louisiana and has been a favorite destination for Corey and Abby who are from Dallas. The island's rich history in coffee also made it a no-brainer."

Small batch, ethically sourced coffee comes directly from a farm in Honduras and is then freshly roasted, by Billy, right there at the corner store. The specialty of the house is a nitrogen-infused cold brew. With the surge in popularity of the pod-style coffees, the owners spent over a year trying to ensure that they could produce a coffee that still had high standards in taste and freshness, but within a pod for the K-style coffee machines. Sustainable packaging was the top priority with a biodegradable plastic-style pod as well. They accomplished just that, and it is now available at Conex Coffee Plus.

By the pound, whole bean, ground and served for takeout, the secret roaster's blend is years in the making and exclusively in Galveston. The dream of roasting coffee daily, being on the Gulf and finding more ways to serve the community while honoring military troops has come full circle for the owners. (conexcoffeeilc.com)

PARK BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE CITY OF GALVESTON

The citizens of Galveston voted to create the Park Board of Trustees of the City of Galveston 60 years ago with the mission to direct tourism on the island. The organization is governed by a board of nine volunteer community members appointed by the Galveston City Council. The Park Board oversees Seawolf Park, Dellanera RV Park, East Beach, Stewart Beach, Visit Galveston, Galveston Island Beach Patrol and Coastal Zone Management (beach cleaning). The organization is funded mainly through Hotel Occupancy Taxes and beach user fees that are paid for by visitors to the island.

KELLY DE SCHAUN
Executive Director
Park Board of Trustees

Park Board Projects

Over the decades, the Park Board has undertaken many projects. Notable among them are beach building along the seawall. In 2015, the Park Board created a new beach west of 61st Street stretching a mile to 75th street. The beach was built in cooperation with the Army Corps of Engineers, the Texas General Land Office and the City of Galveston. It is named after the Texas State Senator, Babe Schwartz, whose work was instrumental in creating the Park Board and advocating for public beach access in Texas. Future plans call for nourishing existing beaches regularly to help protect the area from storm surges. The Park Board has also been instrumental in improving and maintaining the East End Lagoon, a 685-acre parcel on the island's east end. Here, ADA trails have been constructed, new parking areas added and plans for an educational pavilion are in the works.

Visit Galveston

Tourism is a key economic driver for Galveston. The industry supports one of three jobs on the island. Each year, Galveston welcomes more than 7 million to its shores, historic sites and family attractions. Visit Galveston is the official destination marketing organization for Galveston and employs marketing, public relations and sales professionals to promote the island to potential leisure and business visitors. The Visit Galveston team works with guidance from the citizen-led Tourism Development Advisory Committee. It manages the destination website, www.visitgalveston.com and supports special events and partner campaigns to attract visitors to the island.

Galveston Island Beach Patrol

With more than 7 million visitors heading to Galveston Island, the Galveston Island Beach Patrol takes beachgoer safety seriously. The GIBP is an award-winning, highly trained force that performs rescues, interventions and education. Each year, the group delivers water safety talks to thousands of school students in the greater Houston area informing them of Galveston's rip currents, the flag notification system and the importance of swimming near a lifeguard.

Coastal Zone Management

Keeping 32 miles of beaches clean, green and pristine is no easy task. The Park Board's Coastal Zone Management crew rises before the sun to dispose of litter and debris along the shoreline. They also take care to enforce the island's Leave No Trace ordinance that requires beachgoers to dismantle or remove items left overnight on the beaches. The citizen-led Beach Maintenance Advisory Committee, comprised of research and science professionals and involved residents, makes recommendations about litter control, beach nourishment and other environmental initiatives.

Advisory Committees

Citizen-led advisory committees help shape Park Board decisions and policies. They include Tourism Development, Beach Maintenance and Parks and Amenities. Galveston residents are encouraged to become part of the decision-making process. More information, plus meeting schedules and agendas can be found online. (www.galvestonparkboard.org)

GULF COAST MARKET (THE BIG STORE)

With ties to Southeast Texas, Keith Zahar planted his feet on Bolivar Peninsula, opened Gulf Coast Market and hasn't looked back.

Gulf Coast Market, or The Big Store as locals call it, opened on May 17, 1986. In the beginning it was just a grocery store with a small gift shop within 12,000 square feet. After several additions, including a deli in the 1980s and an Ace Hardware in the 1990s, it quickly grew into "The Big Store" with 65,000 square feet.

After the store was damaged and almost wiped out during Hurricane Ike in 2008, it was rebuilt and opened again in January 2009 adding hardware and building supplies as that's what was needed at the time. The full store was re-opened, bigger and better, on May 17, 2009. Texas First Bank opened inside the store after the bank building was demolished during Ike. Zahar started out stocking shelves at Gerlands early on, and through hard work and perseverance eventually opened Gulf Coast Market. He is widely known to be very generous in supporting Bolivar Peninsula in any way he can. He has installed a generator that can support the store, so anytime power is off, everyone still has a place to eat, buy groceries, get gas and check the internet.

The Big Store has everything to make any beach vacation a blast. Many vacationers make The Big Store their first stop on Bolivar. (www.thebigstorecrystalbeach.com) invested more than $180 million in rehabilitating historic properties in Galveston.

Immediately following Hurricane Ike, which struck Galveston on Sept. 13, 2008, MHP launched a massive cleanup and restoration program in downtown Galveston. MHP estimates $24 million was put forth for the cost of disaster relief, cleanup and building renovation for the more than 20 Mitchell-owned buildings damaged in the storm and aftermath.

The family renovated the Hendley Row Building, built in 1855 and located at the intersection of Strand and 20th streets. It is the oldest surviving commercial building in Galveston and the final building that George P. Mitchell had a hand in saving before his death in 2013. Work was completed in 2016 at a cost of $4 million.

"The Mitchell family shares a deep appreciation for Galveston's heritage, and we remain inspired by the vision of our parents," Grant Mitchell, president of MHP said. "The buildings they saved speak to us as much as they did to them. My family is firmly dedicated to preserving my parents' legacy." (www.mitchellhistoricproperties.com)

PRESTIGE OYSTERS INC.

Prestige Oysters is a private family run fully integrated business specializing in growing and processing oysters.

CEO Johnny Halili migrated from Albania to the U.S. in the 1970s. Landing in the projects of Chicago, Halili got his first job at a local car wash. T&T MARINE SALVAGE

In 1957, after serving in the U.S. Army and working for numerous companies, including Marine Machine Works and Todd Shipyard as a machinist, Rudy Teichman established T&T Marine Ways Inc., a small shipyard on the end of Teichman Point. The business consisted of a dock for working on small vessels, a machine shop and a small dredge. Later, a marine railway was built to perform dry repairs on small vessels.

KELLY TEICHMAN
Vice president

In 1960, Rudy Teichman bought a wooden tug named "Josephine." He re-floated and rebuilt the vessel to provide towing services in the area. Hurricane Carla struck Galveston in 1961, destroying the shipyard. Teichman started over and by 1964, he was expanding again, hiring more employees and building bigger, better facilities and vessels.

Recognizing the need for salvage equipment along the Texas Coast, Teichman started T&T Marine Salvage Inc. Using little more than ingenuity and experience, he raised sunken boats and barges. In 1976, he bought a steam crane with a capacity of 75 tons for heavy lift work. Today, T&T owns and operates a wide assortment of equipment, providing a wide range of services, including OPA 90 Response, Salvage and Marine Firefighting Services.

With more than 40 locations in the United States and its territories, operational bases in South America, Europe and Asia, Teichman Group has strategically positioned offices and alliances across the globe to provide a full range of maritime services and emergency response solutions. T&T owns state-of-the-art portable equipment capable of being dispatched anywhere in the world on a moment's notice.

The dedication, integrity and pride Teichman exhibited throughout his career is alive and well at T&T. His wife, Donna, has taken over as CEO of the companies and his oldest son, Kevin, continues to run the companies along with his sister, Kelly.

THE DAILY NEWS

The Daily News is not your everyday local newspaper. The year was 1842. Texas was still a Republic, and Gen. Sam Houston was finishing his last term as president. Galveston was not yet an incorporated town, but the Gulf Coast village did have a robust population of about 4,000 residents.

LEONARD WOOLSEY
President/publisher
The Daily News

Serving as a hub and economic engine to the rest of Texas, Galveston quickly became the largest port city, providing access to anything that came through the Gulf of Mexico.

On April 11, 1842, the first edition of the Galveston Daily News was published in a small building on Tremont Street. Eventually The Daily News grew from a weekly, to bi-weekly, a tri-weekly and finally today's daily hybrid print and digital model.

The newspaper founded a sister publication, The Dallas

Morning Star, on Oct. 1, 1885. Also, The Daily News was the first paper in Texas to have a dedicated train line, as well as a telephone.

The Daily News is privately held by Southern Newspapers Inc., home to a dozen other local community newspapers. Lissa Walls, daughter of founder Carmage Walls, is the owner of Southern Newspapers; Leonard Woolsey serves as president for the company as well as publisher of The Daily News.

Located in a building specially built to weather tropical storms and hurricanes, The Daily News can be found at 8522 Teichman Road on Galveston Island.

The Daily News is home to the award-winning Coast Monthly magazine, and many other popular titles. The Daily News also serves the region by printing newspapers for independent owners throughout the Houston area.

Survivor of wars, prosperity, storms and hurricanes, The Daily News continues to be committed to serving Galveston County as its trusted source for news and information. Stay tuned. (galvnews.com)

UTMB research scientists are addressing the need for new diagnostics, preventive measures and treatments for a number of pressing health concerns, including internationally recognized research on infectious diseases such as Ebola and Zika, and groundbreaking work on identifying, testing for, preventing and treating COVID-19. A recently established Institute for Drug Discovery will advance the development of new treatments for a wide range of conditions. The university also is forming a Brain Health Institute to amplify its research and clinical expertise in the neurosciences, neurodegenerative diseases, addiction, pain management and traumatic brain injury.

Meanwhile, UTMB Health continues to have a significant impact on the local and regional economy. On Galveston Island, results of a 2016 study found that the university directly and indirectly accounted for $300 million in business volume, $310 million in personal income and 10,000 jobs. In the county, the direct and indirect impact was $526 million in business volume, $670 million in personal income and 13,000 jobs. (utmbhealth.com)

Before being named president and CEO of AMOCO in 2004, Bailey worked in the marketing department and also served as executive vice president. At the time of his promotion, the credit union was suffering from negative loan growth and membership growth and had only one location. However, he faced the challenges head-on and created a plan to lead his team to success without hesitation. Bailey took risks and never sacrificed his true vision for the credit union, even in moments of doubt.

For more than 20 years with the credit union, Bailey's tenacity and leadership have taken AMOCO from one branch to 10 branches, from 46,225 mem-

COASTAL COMMUNITY FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

CCFCU began in 1957 when employees of the Galveston Fire Department decided to form Galveston Firemen's FCU. In 1973, the name changed to City of Galveston FCU to allow all city employees of Galveston to join. Then, in 1991, the credit union purchased the bank building at 2302 Church St., which enabled it to offer more services to its growing family.

On Aug. 28, 2000, the credit union changed its charter to take in people who live, work, worship and attend school in Galveston County. To identify with its field of membership, the name was changed to Coastal Community FCU. What began as a $5 investment for 13 firemen in 1957, has grown to a thriving, full-service financial institution with assets of more than $95 million and CCFCU's mission today is the same as its founding firemen and it's proud to uphold the "people helping people" motto while providing affordable financial services.

Motivated to live up to its name, CCFCU is committed to giving back to the community as often as possible, such as its Back 2 School Bash through which the credit union gives away new school supplies to the entire community.

Come see CCFCU first for all your financial needs. CCFCU has four convenient branches to serve you, two located in Galveston – 2302 Church St. and 6811 Stewart Road – and two branches on the mainland – 6708 Gulf Freeway in La Marque and 7002 Fauna St. in Houston. (coastalcommunityfcu.org)

EATCETERA

Five years ago, Chef Lena Pyles began the transformation of EATcetera from an eclectic lunch spot into a multifaceted dining establishment. A Texan by birth, at 18, Chef Lena began her culinary career in Dallas. By 21, she was the executive chef at the Dallas Museum of Art. After leaving Dallas, she worked as the executive chef in 4-star restaurants in Las Vegas, Atlanta and Houston. A desire to slow down and focus on family brought Pyles back to Texas and permanently to Galveston.

LENA PYLES
Chef/owner
EATcetera

When EATcetera's founder retired in 2017, the restaurant's future was unknown. Pyles stepped in to reopen in 2018, serving the much-loved variety of sandwiches, paninis, salads and soups. Pyles continued to expand the menu to include Asian-fusion specials, a children's menu, all-day light brunch, and a plethora of dining options for vegan diners and patrons with food sensitivities.

Under the direction of Pyles, EATcetera's services also include catering, private chef services and Events at EATcetera for private evening dining. Launching in spring 2023, the Fancy Jackson Supper Club will be a VIP membership program.

While EATcetera continues to have an almost cult-like following amongst its diners, the restaurant also became a community leader in sustainability practices and community service. To date, EATcetera's large-scale seasonal recycling programs have collected 15 tons of recyclable material. EATcetera is proudly a Community Partner of the Galveston Arts Council, has founded its Youth Arts program and the EATcetera Kid's Zone. All of which are provided at no charge. (velvetcheftx.com)

This committee shall be charged with the primary responsibility to promote a positive and pro-active business environment through the following activities:

- Opposing local governmental action which inhibits a strong business climate and diminishes job growth opportunities.
- Establishing productive relationships between business interests and public officials.

- Providing forums to inform public officials and candidates for public office on issues impacting the business community.
- Providing forums to educate the membership on issues impacting the business community.
- Communicating official Chamber positions to the appropriate public officials prior to their action on the issue.
- Identifying and supporting individuals to serve on public Commissions and Boards.
- Endeavoring to hold public officials accountable for their actions and the resulting impact on the business community. This may be accomplished by the circulation of public official voting records to the Chamber membership on any issue on which the Chamber has communicated an official position.

This committee meets the second Tuesday of every month at 8 a.m. in the Chamber Board Room.

THE ISLAND LIFE

Have you ever dreamed of living the quiet island life? That dream can be a reality on Galveston Island.

With the amenities of a big city, accommodations of a resort destination and tight-knit friendliness of a small town — all set against the beautiful backdrop of the seaside — Galveston Island is an idyllic place to call home for more than 50,000 people. It could be your home, too.

Located just 50 miles south of Houston, Galveston features 32 miles of beaches, a relaxed atmosphere, abundant leisure activities, excellent medical facilities, first-rate restaurants, educational opportunities, numerous attractions and a vibrant historic downtown that offers cruising, shopping, arts and entertainment.

Choose where you want to live and how in a robust housing market that offers something to suit any style and budget. From historic Victorian homes to modern beach-front houses, from converted lofts in historic downtown buildings to the latest high-rise condominiums, you'll find your dream home on Galveston Island.

Education offerings include innovative public and charter schools, three higher-level educational institutions, and even a thriving school for seniors.

The multifaceted economic base offers myriad opportunities in an ever-increasing job market. The biggest industries include tourism, health care, research, education and maritime.

The beautiful natural world that surrounds the island only adds to the richness of life here. Galveston Island State Park has 2,000 acres of surf, beach, dunes, coastal prairie, freshwater ponds, wetlands, bayous and bay shoreline.

Business is bustling here, shored up by the 5-star accredited Galveston Regional Chamber of Commerce with more than 900 members and a history that dates back 178 years on the island. ★

HISTORY

Designed and built in 1895 and 1896, the Hutchings-Sealy Building, 2326 Strand, has since survived all storms and hurricanes that have passed through the area, including the 1900 Storm that devastated surrounding structures and neighborhoods. The building is considered a landmark of architect Nicholas Clayton's achievements and one of the earliest examples of steel-frame construction in Texas, according to Mitchell Historic Properties. In 2022, Facundo Caminos, president of Caminos Historic Properties, acquired the 127-year-old building, long owned and preserved by the late island-born philanthropist, oilman and developer George P. Mitchell. The building is home to Riondo's Ristorante, shops Tina's on the Strand and Belle Lees, Art Echo and Reverie Skate Shop.

A RICH AND STORIED PAST

The story of Galveston is a page-turner — adventure, tragedy, opulence, generosity and sacrifice, bound by a strong streak of grit and gumption that are trademarks of its residents even today.

When Europeans arrived on Galveston Island, they found it inhabited by Karankawa Indians. The first noted visitor was Spanish explorer Cabeza de Vaca, who landed here in 1528.

French privateer Jean Laffite made his home in Galveston in 1817, and rumors still are whispered of Laffite's treasure buried somewhere on the Island.

Galveston became an established port under the Mexican government in 1825. City leaders developed the wharves and railroads at the only deep-water port between New Orleans and Tampico, Mexico.

The city of Galveston was born in 1836, the year that Texas gained its independence from Mexico and became a republic.

As one of the first settlements in Texas, Galveston served as the state's primary port for almost a century, as well as a major hub for immigration. It was a gateway to Texas and represented the promise of the American dream.

The island grew into a bustling center of commerce with wharves, cotton warehouses, banks, stores and an opera house. Cattle ranching thrived on the Island where cattle could quickly be shipped out.

From the late 1800s, through the Roaring '20s and decades following, cowboys drove herds of cattle down the seawall, steering them left at 37th Street and to the port.

By 1899, Galveston boasted of more millionaires per capita than any other U.S. city. Elegant mansions were built in the forward-looking city that had equipped itself with telegraphs, telephones and electricity.

But in 1900, the city was devastated by a hurricane.

On Sept. 8, 1900, the storm swept ashore with winds estimated at up to 140 mph and a storm surge of nearly

GALVESTON FIRSTS (IN THE STATE OF TEXAS)

Galveston has been home to many of the state's "firsts" throughout the years. Here are just a few:

Port: Port of Galveston, established in 1825 by the Congress of Mexico

Chamber of Commerce: Galveston Chamber of Commerce, 1845

Medical school: Galveston Medical College, organized in November 1865

Nursing school: John Sealy Hospital Training, 1894

Law firm: Mills Shirley, LLP, 1846

Library: Galveston Mercantile Library, 1871, predecessor of the Rosenberg Library

First high school for African Americans: Central High School, organized 1885

Maritime academy: Texas A&M University at Galveston, 1962

16 feet. While an exact death toll isn't known, it is estimated that 6,000 to 8,000 of the island's 37,000 residents perished in the 1900 Storm.

Afterward, Galveston literally lifted itself up. City leaders constructed a seawall and raised the level of 500 city blocks.

While the city lost its footing as a leading cultural and business center and even as the state's primary seaport in the aftermath of the storm, Galveston would eventually rebound.

The tenacity of those who rebuilt the city after the 1900 Storm lives on today in Galveston's residents, who once again rebuilt after Hurricane Ike damaged about 80 percent of the island's homes and buildings in 2008.

In 2021, Galveston played host to 6.5 million visitors who spent $913 million. They are attracted to the same features that brought visitors more than 100 years ago — the island's natural beauty, first-class dining and hotels, the arts, cultural activities and recreational attractions. ★

Galveston Island's housing scene is a delightful fusion of styles from throughout the ages. From stately mansions to charming cottages to the conversions of downtown buildings into residential lofts, Galveston's older neighborhoods have options to fit any budget. West End neighborhoods offer modern homes and raised houses that overlook the beach or bay. For the more traditional homebuyer, ranch-style homes built from the 1950s to 1980s can be found in neighborhoods throughout much of the Island. Renters also have a variety of housing styles from which to choose. Many houses are available for rent, as well as more contemporary apartment complexes and quaint loft apartments in the upper floors of downtown Victorian buildings.

EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION

Galvestonians place a high regard on education. The city boasts a strong public and private school system that gives parents and students several options. Some graduates continue their education in Galveston County at one of five institutions of higher learning: Galveston College, the University of Texas Medical Branch, Texas A&M University at Galveston, College of the Mainland and the University of Houston – Clear Lake.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

GALVESTON INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Galveston ISD is a public school district in Texas, established in 1884, that serves nearly 7,000 students. Its 12 Schools of Choice campuses consist of traditional and theme-based schools, charter schools, STEM programs, magnet schools and a mega-magnet high school. The district's mission is to educate, engage and empower each student for a life of excellence.

Galveston ISD campuses stretch from Oppe Elementary School on the West End of Galveston Island to Crenshaw Elementary and Middle School on Bolivar Peninsula. Instead of following the rigid boundaries of school zones, Galveston ISD follows a unique Schools of Choice model, which allows all students to apply to any program in the district that has space. There are magnet programs, neighborhood-style schools and charter-based schools.

Middle schools offer pre-advanced placement credits, and Ball High School has access to free or discounted dual credit hours from Galveston College, as well as advanced placement classes. Galveston ISD also partners with Moody Early Childhood Center to serve children from 6 weeks old to prekindergarten as well as 4-year-old children.

The student body is ethnically and culturally diverse. Seventy-nine percent of the students enrolled are economically disadvantaged. Almost 50 percent of all students are Hispanic, 23 percent are African American, 22 percent are White, 2 percent are Asian and 3 percent are made up of other races.

Galveston ISD was financially sound for the 2021-22 school year, having achieved a rating of "A" for "superior achievement" for the 11th year in a row. This is the state's highest rating under the Financial Integrity Rating System of Texas.

The district received an overall grade of B from the Texas Education Association for the 2021-22 school year. (www.gisd.org)

AMBASSADORS PREPARATORY ACADEMY

Ambassadors Preparatory Academy is an open-enrollment public charter school with a mission focused on having a learner-centered environment by actually involving students, parents, employees and the community. All stakeholders will focus on the unique needs of the individual student to provide programs and activities for critical thinking, problem solving and research.

Teachers receive a substantial degree of curricular and instructional freedom in exchange for high expectations for effective classroom practice and student performance. Teaching and learning are focused on real-life situations, so students can understand the relevance of information to their everyday lives.

Project-based learning and field studies are used extensively to accomplish this objective. Lessons are differentiated to meet the needs of each student, and a variety of activities are chosen to reinforce concepts and 21st-century skills (communication, innovation, collaboration and presentation). In addition to a rigorous academic curriculum, Ambassadors Prep offers courses in visual and performing arts. (www.apagalv.org)

ODYSSEY ACADEMY

Odyssey Academy is an open-enrollment public charter school with nearly 1,500 students at three locations in Galveston, El Lago and Texas City. The schools aim to provide the best learning environment available in the Gulf Coast area, serving students from prekindergarten through high school.

Odyssey Academy focuses on four effective approaches that, in combination, set the school apart from other public school programs:

1. Odyssey Academy offers a full-day

prekindergarten program for qualifying 3- and 4-year-old children. There is strong evidence showing that children who participate in high-quality Pre-K programs enter school more ready to learn, and Odyssey believes parents should have the opportunity to give their children this advantage.

2. Odyssey Academy focuses on leadership skills from prekindergarten through high school using Franklin Covey's Leader in Me program with the foundational purpose of creating well-rounded learners who become life-ready leaders. Both the Galveston and Bay Area schools have attained Lighthouse Status, which only 10 percent of the 4,500 plus schools in the international program have reached.

3. Odyssey Academy is a STEAM school (science, technology, engineering, art and mathematics). Teachers focus on these subjects to help students develop critical thinking and problem-solving skills.

4. Odyssey Academy offers dual credit and early college programs. Dual credit allows students to earn college credits while still attending high school. Early College is an innovative program that helps students earn an associate's degree while simultaneously earning their high school diploma. With four graduating classes, 117 graduates have earned 42 associate degrees. (www.odyssey-academy.com)

PRIVATE SCHOOLS

HOLY FAMILY CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Holy Family Catholic School continues the tradition of Catholic education in Galveston, providing instruction for prekindergarten to eighth grade.

To prepare students for the future, Holy Family educates the whole child by building a strong foundation with focus on four key areas: intellectual, spiritual, moral and physical. Educators incorporate Christ-centered teachings with accelerated academics and enrichment activities in a family-like atmosphere where faith and culture are intertwined in all areas of campus life. Classes are small and student-focused with the average class size ranging from 10 to 15 students.

In addition to traditional subjects, Holy Family puts emphasis on science, social studies and religion. Students also receive instruction in Spanish, art, music, physical education and technology.

There is daily prayer, religious instruction, weekly, student-led Masses and focus on the core values of kindness, compassion, integrity, self-discipline and respect for self and others.

O'CONNELL COLLEGE PREPARATORY SCHOOL

O'Connell College Preparatory School is a four-year, co-ed parochial/private high school offering a rigorous academic and college-prep program to students of Galveston, Brazoria and South Harris counties.

To help regain the competitive ground lost due to COVID-19, O'Connell now is offering "A La Carte Education" — credited, college-prep level courses for sixth-, seventh- and eighth-graders and homeschool students. Middle school students looking to get a headstart on their high school career and high school/homeschool students wanting to expand their curriculum can attend individual classes taught by highly qualified education professionals in a clean, safe and happy environment. Courses offered include biology, Spanish, German, speech, robotics with coding, chemistry, U.S. history, economics and ACT/SAT prep and college entrance exam mathematics.

The small student-to-teacher ratio of 12:1 lends itself to a familial atmosphere that helps shape positive character and facilitates a more personalized way of teaching. Students receive one-on-one help when they need it, with no fear of getting overlooked, and their individual talents are recognized and encouraged.

In the last 10 years, O'Connell graduates have been awarded a total of nearly $10 million in collegiate scholarships. The class of 2018 alone was awarded a record-breaking $1,641,976.

Families are encouraged to attend a tour of the campus and meet the faculty and staff, and/or have their child shadow an O'Connell student for a day. Tours and shadow appointments can be set up through the admissions office. (oconnellprep.com)

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY AT GALVESTON

Texas A&M University at Galveston is the ocean campus of Texas A&M University in College Station, and one of only two branch campuses of one of the world's largest public university systems. Aggies by the Sea come from around the world with various backgrounds and interests, all sharing a desire to work, live and learn by the ocean. Texas A&M-Galveston's more than 2,000 undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students represent 43 states and 21 countries.

The Galveston Campus is home to the Gulf Coast's only maritime academy, the Texas A&M Maritime Academy. One of only six such institutions in the United States, graduates earn their licenses as Third Mates alongside a bachelor's degree. Many receive a commission to serve as officers in the U.S. Merchant Marine, U.S. Navy and U.S. Coast Guard.

The ocean is the classroom here on the Galveston Campus. Courses from English and museum studies to marine engineering and maritime business administration, political science and more all are taught from a maritime and marine perspective. (tamug.edu)

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS MEDICAL BRANCH

Established as the state's first medical school in 1891, the University of Texas Medical Branch (UTMB Health) has a long and storied history of improving health in its home state and beyond.

UTMB is continually expanding enrollment in its five schools, educating the health care professionals of the future: School of Medicine, School of Nursing, School of Health Professions, the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences and the recently approved School of Public and Population Health.

To accommodate growth and help address critical health care workforce shortages in Texas and beyond, UTMB opened its new, state-of-the-art Health Education Center in 2019. The $90.4 million facility supports interprofessional education to ensure graduates are well-prepared to work as part of a health care team, and it features advanced-simulation technology to help students hone their skills in a low-risk, high-realism environment. The Health Education Center is one of only a handful of simulation centers in the state and the campus's latest investment in its education mission.

Through innovative curricula, hands-on learning and an emphasis on working together as an interprofessional team, UTMB is training the health care leaders of tomorrow and advancing the institution's mission — to improve health for the people of Texas and around the world — well into the future. A $250 million bond election is set for May 2023 in hopes of raising money to build four new buildings that would greatly expand its program offerings in hospitality and aerospace.

If passed, the bond would address enrollment and program growth, aging facilities, safety and security and infrastructure improvements in the form of four new buildings — a Corporate &

Continuing Education Center, public services center, a three-story classroom building and a library/classroom building that will house new programs in hospitality management and aerospace aviation.

The bond also calls for additions and renovations to the welding building, college services building and Industrial Education Building, along with infrastructure upgrades and campus improvements. The bond also calls for the demolition of the Learning Resource Center, racquetball court, firing range and college services building.

COM's $162.5 million bond program in 2018 completed the initial phases of the COMPASS 2025 facilities master plan on time and on budget. (www.com.edu)

THE BEST IN HEALTH CARE

Health care on Galveston Island is world-class with a global impact. Vaccine development, burn care research, Ebola vaccine and treatment research, epilepsy care and tropical disease research are just a few of the areas where the University of Texas Medical Branch has garnered acclaim on a world stage.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS MEDICAL BRANCH

For more than 130 years, UTMB has been a major provider of health care in Galveston, throughout the greater region and beyond.

UTMB Health continues to expand access to expert patient care at each of its hospital campuses in Galveston, League City, Angleton, Danbury and Clear Lake, as well as through its comprehensive primary and specialty care network throughout Southeast Texas.

As the region grows, UTMB Health is committed to meeting the health care needs of the communities it serves. UTMB Health's system of care includes hospitals and emergency departments on four campuses, a network of primary and specialty care clinics and urgent care services. No matter where patients enter the UTMB Health network, providers, clinics and hospitals are seamlessly connected to one another to ensure patients receive the very best care, close to home.

John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, the longtime anchor of the island campus health care complex, recently opened modernized and spacious Mother/Baby, Labor & Delivery, Level IV Neonatal Intensive Care, Pediatrics and Pediatric Intensive Care units. The $133 million renovation of John Sealy Hospital also includes enhanced technological capabilities, expanded patient rooms and an improved hospital exterior.

Adjacent to John Sealy Hospital is the Jennie Sealy Hospital, which opened in 2016 and offers advanced health care services to patients in a soothing, healing environment that also supports state-of-the-art training for future health professionals. The Galveston Campus also is a Level 1 Trauma Center and certified comprehensive stroke center.

Patients who live in northern Galveston County and surrounding Bay Area communities have convenient access to the finest inpatient and outpatient care, advanced treatment options and outstanding emergency and urgent care services at two UTMB Health hospital campuses — League City and Clear Lake (Webster).

The League City Hospital Campus recently completed construction of a new five-story patient tower for the expansion of medical and surgical services at this campus. And, the campus houses a regional MD Anderson outpatient cancer center in the first partnership of its kind among University of Texas health institutions.

Residents of the Bay Area have access to the university's newest hospital, the UTMB Health Clear Lake Campus. Working with physicians in the community, UTMB offers the latest treatment options and advanced procedures in adult and pediatric inpatient and outpatient care. The campus is a primary stroke certified center, has chest pain accreditation, provides state-of-the-art interventional suites for cardiac procedures and is a Level 2 Trauma Center. A pediatric inpatient hospital and pediatric emergency services opened in early 2020 in collaboration with Children's Memorial Hermann.

Those who live in southern Brazoria County have immediate and convenient access to exemplary inpatient and outpatient care services, including an acute care hospital on the UTMB Health Angleton Danbury Campus. In 2021, UTMB Health opened a new clinic location for primary care and specialty care to expand access in the southern Brazoria County region.

RESEARCH

UTMB's robust research enterprise is helping define the future of the health sciences.

UTMB scientists are addressing the need for new diagnostics, preventive measures and treatments for a number of pressing health concerns, including internationally recognized research on infectious diseases, such as Ebola and Zika, and groundbreaking work on identifying, testing for, preventing and treating COVID-19.

The university conducts life-saving research in such fields as chronic diseases, including heart disease, Alzheimer's, Parkinson's and diabetes; environmental health and asthma; burns and inflammation; traumatic brain injury; and addiction.

With internationally renowned programs in infectious diseases and vaccine development, UTMB is home to the Sealy Institute for Vaccine Sciences and the Galveston National Laboratory, the only national lab in Texas and one of only two national labs in the U.S. dedicated to the safe study of infectious threats to health. It has played a leading role in the response to COVID-19. (www.utmbhealth.com)

MD ANDERSON LEAGUE CITY

For more than 80 years, The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center has provided high-quality cancer care. With multiple locations around the greater Houston area, MD Anderson offers convenient, comfortable access to world-class cancer care in League City, close to where you live and work. MD Anderson's multidisciplinary approach to patient care means that you and your loved ones are part of the team that helps decide the best course of treatment possible.

While MD Anderson League City treats many types of cancers, the faculty here has particular expertise in the diagnosis, treatment and management of the following cancers: breast, colorectal, dermatology and skin, endocrine, genitourinary, gynecologic, head and neck and thoracic.

MD Anderson League City also offers the following treatment support services: diagnostic imaging (including mammograms), on-site outpatient lab services, rehabilitation therapy, cancer pain management, social work, access to clinical trials, clinical nutrition, genetic counseling, oncology nurse navigator services, radiation oncology and speech pathology.

MD Anderson League City also offers screenings, such as mammograms, and risk assessment for several types of cancer, which can help reduce your risk of cancer or detect it early, when it is most treatable. If you have been diagnosed with cancer or would like to learn more about lowering your risk, MD Anderson is here to help. Appointments are readily available, and patients are cared for in an easily accessible location with free parking. (www.mdanderson.org)

Recognized as a National Historic Landmark for its collection of 19th-century architecture, The Strand is the heart of downtown Galveston and the waterfront with shopping, dining, museums, entertainment, accommodations and night life.

MOODY GARDENS

Sitting on 242 acres, Moody Gardens is home to nine attractions (two seasonal), a hotel and a convention center. Its Rainforest, Aquarium and Discovery pyramids put the fun in learning.

SCHLITTERBAHN GALVESTON ISLAND WATERPARK

GALVESTON HISTORICAL FOUNDATION HISTORIC SITES

One of best-known buildings in Galveston, the 1892 Bishop's Palace was designed by architect Nicholas Clayton for lawyer and politician Walter Gresham. The Victorian castle was cited by the American Institute of Architects as one of the 100 most important buildings in America. Guided tours are offered daily, as well as self-guided tours.

MUSEUMS

Galveston is home to a variety of museums, including The Bryan Museum, Galveston County Museum, Texas Railroad Museum, Galveston Children's Museum, Ocean Star Offshore Drilling Rig & Museum and the Galveston Historic Seaport featuring the 1877 tall ship Elissa.

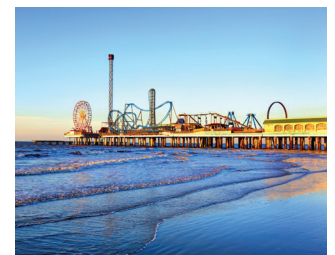

FESTIVALS AND CELEBRATIONS

Galveston is home to many world-class events throughout the year, including the third largest Mardi Gras celebration in the country, Dickens on The Strand, a world-famous Victorian holiday celebration and the Lone Star Bike Rally.

GALVESTON ISLAND HISTORIC PLEASURE PIER

Landry's transformed the former site of the Flagship Hotel in 2012 with restaurants, shops, midway games and 16 rides, including a soaring, 100-foot roller coaster.

THE GRAND 1894 OPERA HOUSE

This Romanesque Revival style theater is listed in the National Register of Historic Places and presents more than 35 productions annually, including dance, drama, Broadway musicals and opera.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Galveston Island is known for its great restaurants, historical charm and first-rate attractions, but it's also a popular place to take it easy. Whether you're on vacation, visiting for work, or live on the island, the great outdoors offer endless opportunities to relax and have fun.

BIRDING

Three-fourths of all North American species travel through Galveston during fall and spring migration, and bird sanctuaries thrive from the eastern tip of the Island to Galveston Island State Park on the west end. One of the most popular birding destinations is the Dos Vacas Muertas Bird Sanctuary, which sits on a 6-acre plot of land on the west end of Galveston Island.

OUTDOOR SPORTS

If outdoor sports are more your style, the island has plenty to offer. Pick up a game of beach volleyball at courts on East Beach, Stewart Beach or Sea Star Base Galveston. Grab a racket and head to one of 20 public tennis courts. Slow things down with a round of golf at Galveston Country Club (open to visitors for golf and restaurant facilities), Moody Gardens Golf Course and Magic Carpet Golf on Seawall Boulevard.

KAYAKING

Galveston Island State Park offers three kayak trails that are largely protected by breakwater, ranging in length from 2.6 to 4.8 miles. Artist Boat also provides guided interpretive tours to places of natural significance on Galveston Island and Galveston Bay via kayak.

SURFING

With 32 miles of beachfront, it's no surprise that surfing is a popular activity in Galveston. The city has designated surfing areas, and surfboard rentals are available at most of the surf shops along Seawall Boulevard.

SEAWALL

At 10.4 miles long, the seawall attracts walkers, joggers, bicyclists, surfers, sunbathers, skaters and sightseers year-round. It's a great place to exercise or just kick back and watch the waves at sunrise.

FISHING

For many anglers, fishing isn't just a pastime — it's a way of life. From surf fishing to offshore charters, the Galveston Bay area hosts more sports fishermen than any other spot on the Texas Coast, with more than 100 species of fish caught here regularly. Some local favorites include speckled trout, redfish, flounder, golden croaker, drum and Spanish mackerel.

SHOP & SAVOR

There have long been rumors of hidden treasure on Galveston Island, but the truth is that residents and visitors find treasure every day in the many shops and boutiques around the Island. From the latest fashions to one-of-a-kind antiques, Galveston retail outlets offer something for everyone.

Getting geared up for the beach? The seawall is the place to be. Beachwear, beach supplies, surfing gear and souvenirs can be found in the many shops along the beach front.

Head to The Strand Historic District for antiques, vintage clothing or artwork created by some of Galveston's finest artists. Local galleries are filled with original artwork and collectibles, custom framing and jewelry. You'll also find specialty gift shops that offer intriguing finds for foodies, chocoholics, bookworms, athletes and clothes horses.

On Broadway, the island's beautiful six-lane, palm tree-lined main thoroughfare, look for furnishings, flooring, home accessories and all things home décor. Broadway also boasts block after block of fabulous Victorian homes from which to get inspiration for your own home remodeling project.

When the shopping is done, replenish your strength at one of Galveston's many eateries. With more than 100 restaurants, the island is a diner's dream — and the food often comes with a view. Many of the eateries are tucked into historic structures, nestled in courtyards or overlooking the water.

Whether you are up for a flavorful adventure or prefer to stick to good old-fashioned country cooking, this small town with big city tastes has you covered. Greek, German, Czech, Asian, Italian, Mediterranean, Mexican and Continental cuisine are among the offerings from around the world. Galveston even does barbecue and Cajun, burgers and beer, and macaroni and cheese.

Don't forget to save room for dessert. Key lime pie, saltwater taffy, tres leches cake, Italian ices, baklava, pecan pie and gourmet cupcakes are a few local favorites.
